Reminder: Minimum Wage Increase

Effective Jan. 1, 2020, the City of Santa Clara's minimum wage will increase by 40 cents per hour to $15.40. Employers that are subject to the Santa Clara business license tax or maintain a facility in the city will be required to pay each employee who performs at least two hours of work per week in Santa Clara a wage of at least $15.40 per hour. For more information regarding the Santa Clara minimum wage ordinance, visit santaclaraca.gov/minimumwage, call the City Manager's Office at 408-615-2210, or email minimumwage@santaclaraca.gov.

Prepare for Power Outages

While the power stayed on in Santa Clara during PG&E's recent Public Safety Power Shutoff, other nearby cities in Santa Clara County were affected. Due to the interconnected nature of California's electrical grid, Silicon Valley Power customers could be affected by a future power shutoff. To stay informed, sign up for eNotify on SantaClaraCA.gov and follow Silicon Valley Power on Twitter, @SantaClaraPower. For more tips, visit siliconvalleypower.com/SantaClaraReady.
