Subject: Adoption of a Resolution of the Oversight Board of the Successor Agency for the City of Santa Clara Redevelopment Agency Relating to 1999 Bond Issuance Redemption

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

On March 5, 2015, the Oversight Board approved Resolution No. 2015-03, directing the Successor Agency to use the remaining proceeds to redeem a portion of the outstanding bonds. This resolution was approved by the Department of Finance on April 15, 2015.

The City of Santa Clara, in compliance with the writ of mandate issued by the Sacramento Superior Court in the litigation Sharma vs. the Successor Agency to the Redevelopment Agency of the City of Santa Clara, returned to the Successor Agency $33.9 million in lease revenues received from real property assets held by the former Redevelopment Agency and transferred to the City prior to dissolution of the former Redevelopment Agency. In accordance with the approved ROPS 15-16A, $8.8 million of the $33.9 million in lease revenues are being used to cover the cost of enforceable obligations for the current ROPS period. The remaining balance, when combined with the remaining 1999 Tax Allocation Bond proceeds, is sufficient to cover the cost of the full redemption of the 1999 Tax Allocation Bonds which are callable on December 1, 2015.

Staff have worked with Financial Advisor (KNN Public Finance) and Bond Counsel (Jones Hall) to prepare a plan for the full redemption of the 1999 Tax Allocation Bonds.

BACKGROUND AND ANALYSIS

The 1999 Tax Allocation Bonds can be redeemed on June 1 and December 1 of each year. In order to call the bonds at the next available call date on December 1, 2015, the call provisions require that the Successor Agency notify the bond holders between October 1 and November 1. Based on an analysis from our Financial Advisor, the amount needed to fully redeem the 1999 Tax Allocation Bonds on the next call date is estimated to be $38.1 million (includes $250,000 for estimated Financial Advisor, Bond Counsel, Trustee, and other miscellaneous fees associated with calling the 1999 bonds). Calling the bonds at this next available call date is estimated to save the taxing entities $8.8 million of interest savings vs. making payments on the normal debt service schedule.

Resolution No. 2015-03 directed the Successor Agency to use remaining 1999 bond proceeds to redeem as many of the outstanding bonds as possible. The attached resolution authorizes the use of other available funding sources to achieve the full redemption of all of the outstanding 1999 bond proceeds, resulting in maximum savings to the taxing entities.

FISCAL IMPACT

The full redemption of the 1999 Tax Allocation Bonds is expected to result in an estimated $8.8 million of interest savings to the taxing entities. Based on an analysis by our Financial Advisor, the Successor Agency has sufficient monies to fully redeem the outstanding 1999 bonds on the December 1, 2015 call date.
