Solar Eclipse Viewing Party

Monday, August 21 from 9:00 AM - 11:00 AM
Vari Hall Lawn, Santa Clara University

Join us on the lawn in front of Vari Hall for a front row seat to the 2017 solar eclipse! Telescopes and eclipse glasses will be provided. Dr. Kristin Kulas will explain the physics behind what we see, as the moon appears to cover the sun in the sky. This event is free and open to the public. Visit scu.edu for more information.

AnnieLaurie Erickson - "Data Shadows" Exhibition

July 14 - September 21
Edward M. Dowd Art and Art History Building

The project Data Shadows is a photographic investigation into the physical apparatus of the Internet and digital surveillance. As our daily lives become increasingly mediated, connected and transparent, the trails of information we leave behind as we traverse the Internet have come to represent digital extensions of our identities. Visit scu.edu for more information.
