This is a summary of the City of Santa Clara's latest response efforts along with impacts to local events and City programs/services due to the coronavirus (COVID-19) public health emergency.

Current Developments

- The City lifted the order that established a citywide curfew effective May 31, 2020 from 8:30 p.m. to 5 a.m.
 - The curfew for Santa Clara officially ended as of Tuesday afternoon, June 2.
 - While two local businesses experienced some vandalism Monday night, June 1, the eminent threat of larger scale looting throughout Santa Clara can now be managed through regular police authority.
 - The local state of emergency remains in effect as the City of Santa Clara maintains vigilance and the ability to respond quickly to any threats to public safety.
 - For more information, view the City Manager's statement.
- The City is continuing to evaluate the County of Santa Clara's updated Shelter-in-Place order and potential changes for City services and changes.
 - The amended order, which takes effect Friday, June 5, allows several sectors to reopen, subject to social distancing protocols, including in-store retail, outdoor dining in restaurants, and childcare and summer programs for children.
 - In addition, the order will allow outdoor gatherings of up to 25 individuals for religious services and cultural ceremonies.

- For more details about the updated order, visit the County Public Health website.
- This week, the City of Santa Clara is joining other West Valley cities in hosting a free joint webinar for small businesses about available resources and strategies during the COVID-19 pandemic
 - The webinar, happening from 10-11 a.m. Wednesday, June 3, will feature guest speakers from Silicon Valley Small Business Development Center and a Santa Clara County Department of Public Health representative.
 - For more information, view the flyer and register online.

Meetings

The City Council will hold its next meeting at 9:30 a.m. Thursday, June 4, 2020. The Special Meeting is being held to consider the adoption of the local state of emergency due to civil unrest.

- Pursuant to the provisions of California Governor's Executive Order N-29-20, issued on March 17, 2020, to prevent the spread of COVID-19, the City of Santa Clara has implemented methods for the public to participate remotely: Subscribe to the City News eNotification list to receive the latest updates on this public health emergency.
 - Via Zoom:
 - Meeting ID: 997-0675-9306
