Projected loss of $5.4 million when including this fiscal year
In Summary

- This detail continues the Board’s direction to provide more transparency about the Management Company’s performance with managing non-NFL events, e.g., revenue and expenditures per each ticketed event
- No SCSA notice to the Board or staff regarding significant financial term
- SCSA got the draft profit and loss information in Aug/September time frame and, only recently, could make these findings
- Stadium Manager expended $2.5 million more on expenditures categorized as Miscellaneous and Operations, Janitorial, and Miscellaneous Expenses which include guest services, game day staffing, janitorial maintenance and other stadium operations costs
In Summary

• 75% of Non-NFL ticketed events lose money or make zero revenue for the Stadium Authority. In total, nine events generated zero revenue or lost the Stadium Authority $6.3 million

• Three Non-NFL ticketed events were revenue generating, resulting in $3.6 million revenue

• On average, loss of $200,000 per ticketed event for the Stadium Authority

• Non-NFL ticketed events lost $2.6 million in total in FY 2018/19. In one example, had a second Taylor Swift concert not been added at the last minute by ManagementCo., net revenue would have increased by $1.8 million for FY 2018/19
